

Brooklyn Museum

School Programs at the Brooklyn Museum fosters critical thinking skills and builds pathways to creating empathetic communities that enhance learners' understanding of themselves, others and the world.

Connect works of art to your classroom curriculum and students' lives with an educator-led guided visit. Our themes draw on the museum's global collections and exhibitions, ranging from ancient to the present day and from regions around the world. Offered virtually or in-person. Free visits are available for Title 1 schools in Brooklyn.

Go deeper with a school partnership. Partnerships are customized, multi-session experiences, designed to augment your curriculum and expand students' learning. We offer flexible options that can be adapted to your school's unique needs: in-person or virtual, live or asynchronous, during or after school. Email school.programs@brooklynmuseum.org to learn more.

Expand your teaching practice with professional development for teachers. We offer a range of workshops for K-12 teachers of all subject areas, exploring our collections and special exhibitions through our unique arts-integrated, social justice-oriented approach. We also offer free learning resources, such as our Arts of China Teaching Toolkit.

Explore strategies for arts integration in our Summer Teacher Institute. Participants in this paid, week-long intensive will learn to integrate best practices for arts education into their classrooms, and contribute to forthcoming curricular resources published by the Museum. Open to 3rd grade teachers of all subject areas. Applications due May 20!

We look forward to working with you this year!
