

CUNY • Creative Arts Team — DOE ACES Fair Info Sheet

SCHOOL-BASED PROGRAMS

Arts Education • Supports for Students with Disabilities • Supports for English Language Learners
CAT in the DOE ACES Guide • DOE Vendor Number: RFC988193 • Contract Number: R8910F

After-School Drama
Early Learning Program
Literacy Through Drama

Bullying & Violence Prevention
College Readiness
Professional Development (CTLE & Aspire Registry)

CAT's school-based programs can be tailored to fit the needs of your class and/or school. For info about residencies and pricing, contact Chris Tokar, Director of Resource Development, at Chris.Tokar@cuny.edu. CAT is a DOE vendor and Arts Partner, and can serve as a provider under the new ARPA Academic Recovery Funds (ARPA ARSY Enrichment in Galaxy).

NYC STUDENT SHAKESPEARE FESTIVAL

Scaffolded program including professional development, in- and after-school residencies, and a culminating Festival in an Off-Broadway theatre. Schools pay per class, discounts available. Registration begins in late summer/early fall.

More info: www.catshakespeare.org
Register now: <https://bit.ly/NYCSSF22reg>
Or email: Krista.Fogle@cuny.edu

CAT YOUTH THEATRE

FREE programs for middle (rising 6th-8th grade) and high school (rising 9th-12th grade) students—young people create learn theatre skills and create original productions. Note: Both programs will have summer programs this August, with school-year programming beginning in September.

After-School Programs
 Youth Theatre runs Tuesdays, 4-6pm
 Junior Youth Theatre runs Wednesdays, 4-6pm

More info: www.catyouththeatre.nyc
Student applications: <https://bit.ly/CATYTApp> or email: Maureen.Donohue@cuny.edu

SOUND THINKING NYC

STNYC Summer Intensive: Music tech & business summer camp: rising 10th-12th grade students learn from professionals in the NYC music industry, earn college credits and eligibility for paid internships! Additional components: mentorship, spring after-school program.

More info: www.soundthinkingnyc.org
More info: <https://bit.ly/STNYC2022Summer>
Or email: Jennifer.Gil@cuny.edu

